The primary goal of corporate finance is to maximize or increase shareholder value. Although it is in principle different from ... Mon, 19 Nov 2018 08:43:00 GMT Corporate finance - Wikipedia - Financial economics is the branch of economics characterized by a "concentration on monetary activities", in which "money of one type or another is likely to appear on both sides of a trade". Its concern is thus the interrelation of financial variables, such as prices, interest rates and shares, as opposed to those concerning the real economy. It has two main areas of focus: asset pricing (or ...
